RECENT EVENTS

Promotions: Our beloved Rear Admiral Joe Campbell has joined the Quadrant One Admiralty Board, filling the position of Chief of Public Affairs. Congrats!

New Recruits: Welcome aboard Veronica Dashiell, Charles Kelso, and Martha Iglesias! We're glad to have you!

SFCQ1 Make-A-Difference Month
Crew members participated in various ways. See Lt. Commander Sterling's recap in the Crew Thoughts section!

Recent Away Missions: The Huntsville Comic & Pop Culture Expo, Stellar Fest, and the Georgia Renaissance Festival. Star Trek cast were met, autographs obtained, ships were flown (and blown up), dances were attended, rides were enjoyed, and camaraderie and drinks were had! See the Facebook Group or join us on the ship's Discord for details, photos, and After Action Reports!

Some of the Terminus Crew (who did NOT die) completed the Artemis Bridge Simulator with the LTE Bridge crew at Stellar Fest 2026.

JUNE MEETING

In person!

Date: Sunday, Jun 14th 2026

Time: 3:00pm, EST

Location: Tucker Brewing Company, 2003 S Bibb Dr, Tucker, GA 30084

Agenda: Review ship rules, Ship's business, Recap of recent Away Missions, Update on upcoming Away Missions, Crew bonding.

A CREW OF MAKERS

Lt. Lewis continues her Dapper Uniform Waistcoat series (begun last fall with a Deep Space Nine waistcoat built for Starbase Indy) with a double breasted Voyager style waistcoat that premiered at Stellar Fest. "It has pockets!" She has plans for potentially making Next Generation and Strange New Worlds ones to extend her "uniform" wardrobe. Yes, she wears it to work at her "normal job."

CREW THOUGHTS

Ship's Commanding Officer, LC January Sterling shares her pride in the Terminus' participation in SFC's Make a Difference Month.

"...Usually the Terminus is a Ship of Makers, but during Do Something, they were a Ship of Kindness. With open hearts and willing hands, they demonstrated Starfleet values and reached out where people needed it..."

Read her entire log on the subspace relays, here.

The Crew of the Terminus (and friends) "on the bridge" at the Georgia Renaissance Festival.
