RECENT EVENTS

Here is a roundup of recent news:

Star Trek: Starfleet Academy has recently begun airing it's first season. The show follows the first new class of Starfleet cadets in over a century as they come of age and train to be officers. It's probably not where you want to introduce new viewers to Trek, but it has a diverse cast of engaging characters. Worth keeping up with.

February 8th Meeting:

Eight of the crew, four of whom were new recruits(!) met at Terminus's favorite drinking hall, Viking Alchemist Meadery, to discuss upcoming ship events, recent Star Trek broadcasts, and to enjoy watching that most important of all sporting events, the Puppy Bowl! Thank you to all crew who came out, and for those who were unable to attend, we hope to see you at the next meeting, which will be online.

Additional Info: Ensign David James will be sharing his experiences with Star Trek Online, and we will discuss plans for Terminus's participation in Starfleet Command's Make-A-Difference month in April.

A CREW OF MAKERS

LTJG Teri Wells recently completed this doll for RADM Joe Campbell's great grandniece. She completed it from a kit, and apparently, the young cadet carries it everywhere. Lovely work!

CREW THOUGHTS

New Commanding Officer in the chair, here, and I'm reflecting on the history I'm inheriting. Terminus has been around for a long time and RADM Campbell set the tone during his tenure. I know following that will be no easy feat (especially for my liver), but I think I'm up to the task. Made all the easier by the crew I'm inheriting.

We're a ship of Dreamers, Makers, and quality people. I look forward to leading us to those next dreams together. Keep your comms open crew, because I'm just getting us warmed up.
